STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Ix the early part of the year the late Mr. Ritchie obtained leave to bring in a Bill to provide for the construction by Companies and private persons of Branch Railways, Iron Tram-roads, common Roads, or Canals, as feeders to public Railways, High-roads, navigable Rivers or Canals. It was Mr. Ritchie's intention to bring in a Bill substantially the same, in so far as the details were concerned, as the Bill introduced, with a similar object, into the late Legislative Council, though with a somewhat wider scope. Bill introduced into the late Legislative Council was not proceeded with in consequence of the abolition of that Council.

The Bill, framed as intended by Mr. Ritchie, having been considered by the Government in the Public Works Department, it was thought that the scope of the proposed legislation might, with great public benefit, be extended even beyond what was advised by Mr. Ritchie, and that any Bill introduced, instead of being confined in its application to Branch Railways, Iron Tram-roads, common Roads, or Canals, as feeders to other works, might properly embrace many other works of public utility. Section II of the Bill defines the works of public utility to which it is intended that the provisions of the Bill should apply, to be Bridges, Roads, Rail—roads, Tram-roads, Canals for irrigation or navigation, Tanks, Works for the improvement of Rivers or Harbours, Docks, Quays, Jetties, Water-works, Gas-works, Mines, Iron or Plantage Brainage Works, or Electric Tele-Copper-works, Drainage-works, or Electric Telegraphs, and also all works subsidiary to such works. The same Section of the Bill further gives power to the Governor-General in Council from time to time by a declaration to be made to that effect, and published in the Official Gazette, to order that any class of works other than those named shall be included among works of public utility within the Act.

It was also considered that the details of the Bill, as proposed by Mr. Ritchie, might be greatly improved, and that they should be made to assimilate more nearly to the laws of the same instare which are in force at home. These considerations have led to in force at home. These consider an entire remodelling of the Bill.

In framing the Bill it had to be considered whether the Bill should be of general application, that is, whether its provisions should apply to all India, or whether the application of the Bill should be confined to those parts of India for which the Conneil of the Governor-General alone can legislate. As a general rule, there can be no doubt that the Government of India should not legislate for the local Governments which have Legislative Councils of their own, on any matters in respect of which those Governments are competent to legislate for themselves. The part of the Indian Councils Act of last year, which relates to legislation, was evidently framed on this principle. But when a law is required for the Empire at large, and whether the law is to be the work of a single Legislature or of several distinct Legislatures, the general principles observed in framing it, and the more essential details, must be the same, I venture to think that there must be a great public convenience in having a single law for all India passed by the Government of India which alone is competent to passe general law instead of two or more laws passed by different Legislatures acting independently of one

The fact that there are, at the present time, two Branch Railway and other Public Works Bills pending, one before the Council of the Governor of Bombay and the other before the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the provisions of which differ little, if at all, from the Bill proposed by Mr. Ritchie, and that Mr. Ritchie considered that a Bill such as was proposed by him, was all that was required for the entire country, would seem clearly to shew that the legislation needed at this time is of the general character above described, and that consequently there can be no necessity for separate Acts for the different Presidencies, or for different parts of the same Presidency.

In addition to what I have already mentioned in favor of a general Bill. I may repeat what was stated by Mr. Ritchie in the remarks with which he prefaced his motion for leave to introduce the Bill proposed by him, namely, that as a Railroad for which feeders are to be provided (and the same observation applies to Canals, High-roads, and other public works) may pass through several Districts or different Presidencies, two different Acts might be objectionable.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND BEASONS

Tais Bill is introduced in consequence of a representation from the Governor of the Straits Settlement, who has brought to notice the great inconvenience experienced in that Settlement, owing to there being no law authorizing enlistment in the Police Force for a stated period of service, and from the omission of the Straits Settlement from so much of the Police Act of 1860 for regulating the Police in the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Straits Settlement as relates to the control over Ale Houses, Coffee Houses, Boarding Houses, Lodg-ing Houses, and the like The parts of Act XLV111 of 1860 referred to are Sections XI, XII, and XIII. These Sections, as they were originally drawn, were intended to apply to the Strait's Settlement. Why the Straits Settlement was afterwards excluded from their operation, I have not been able to discover. There seems no ground for their exclusion, and the Governor of the Straits Settlement appears to have shewn good and sufficient reason for the extension of the Sections, for which the Bill makes provision, to the Stations under his government

With regard to the other point noticed in the representation from the Governor of the Straits Settlement it may be observed that no such law, as that asked for, exists in the Presidency Towns. or, I believe, as home. But the Governor of the Straits Settlement points out that the circumstances of that Settlement and of the Presidency Towns are very different. In the Presidency Towns the rate of pay offered is found sufficient to induce the natives enlisting in the Force to remain in it, and when any member of the Force takes his discharge, his place is, easily supplied. In the Straits Sottlement, on the contrary, the difficulty is experienced in maintaining the Ball Porce at its prescribed strength, and the Comm sioners odpiplain very much of the constant than their exertions to keep the Police Force in an efficient The Governor notices that in the Colony of Hong-Kong it has been found necessary, in framing a law to regulate the Police, to require that every Inspector, subordinate Officer, and I'con, shall enlist for five years, previously to the expiration of which period no one entering the Force is at liberty to resign his office, or to withdraw himself from the duties thereof, except with the permission of the Governor, granted on a certificate of ill-health from the Colonial Surgeon, or on a special representation from the Captain Superintendent. It is considered that great advantage would result from the extension of similar provisions to the Straits Settlement, and the first two Sections of the Bill have been framed with a view to a modification of the existing law, in so far as it extends to the Straits Settlement, in the direction recommended by the Governor.

From the Governor of the Straits Settlement, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, No. 115, dated Singapore, the 21st August 1862
Sir,—I have the honor to enclose, for submission to His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, copy of a representation, No. 58, dated the 30th ultimo. from the Communioner of Police at Sugapore, on the subject of his want of control over Ale Houses, Coffee Houses Boarding and Lodging Houses &c. as exercised by the Commissioners of Police at the Presidency Towns in India

2. There can be no doubt that this control is urgently needed in the Straits, more especially at singapore. The necessity for its being granted was brought prominently to the notice of the Legislative Council in paragraph 3 of my letter, No 201 of the 13th October 1830, and I certainly have been at a loss to discover the grounds upon which a power it has been considered advisable to vest in the Commissioner of Police at Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, has been withheld from the same authority at Singapore, a large sea port, generally crowded with shipping of all nations, and consequently containing a large scafaring population, for whose benefit it is so essential that proper supervision should be exercised over all houses and places of public resort and entertainment.

Another question alluded to in my communication above mentioned was, the expediency of modifying the rules under which men are entertained for service in the Police, and authorizing their being enlisted for a term of years. This may not be deemed a matter of any great importance in the Presidency Towns, where the pay offered is a sufficient inducement for a Native to remain in the Force, and should he take his discharge, his place can be immediately supplied, but it is far different in the Straits Settlement, where there is considerable difficulty in maintaining the Force at its prescribed strength, and Commissioners complain sadly of the corstant changes that are taking place, rendering all their exertions to keep the Police in an efficient state perfectly nugatory, at the sister Colony of Hong-Kong it has been found requisite, in framing the Law for the regulation of the Police, to require every Inspector, subordinate Officer, and Peon, on entering the Force, to bind himself to serve for the period of five years, previous to the expiration of which he is precluded from resigning the office, or withdrawing himself from the duties thereof, except under the permission of His Excellency the Governor, accorded on a certificate of ill health from the Colonial Surgeon, or on a special representation from the Captain Superintendent. In the event of any further amendment of the Police Act, the introduction of a Clause to the above effect program the Police in the Straits would be a great

Sin,—I have the honor to bring to your notice a nuisance which has existed for years, but which has been represented even so long ago as Governor Butterworth's time; it is Beer Shops, and the great increase of them, over which the Police Authorities have no control, as any person who wishes to open such a shop can do so without a license or permission of any kind. These places are mostly kept by Sailors who have left their ships and served as barmen in some public house, and men who are reported to me as convicts, ticket of leave men from the Australian Colonies

From the Preamble of Act XLVIII of 1860 it appears evident, that the Legislative Council of India intended that the Police Commissioners of the Straits should be vested with the like power as those of Calcutta Madras, and Bombay, but unfortunately the important words ' and the several Stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca" have been omitted in the 11th and 12th Sections of the Act—This being remedied, the evil complained of could be dealt with, and only properly conducted houses would be licensed. May I request you to be good enough to bring this to the consideration of His Honor the Governor, and I feel sure you will support my suggestion

Tue following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill for regulating Public Conveyances in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta, with the Bill as revised by the Select Committee, is, by order of the President, published for general information :-

Wa, the majority of the Select Committee on the Bill for regulating Public Conveyances in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta, have the honor to aghmit our Report, annexing a copy of the Bill as revised by us. The till, as it now stands, is very different from the Bill as read in Council, for we have found it necessary to make many alterations and additions, and have in many respects assimilated the Bill to the Act for the Regulation ter Offices respectively, including the supply and a table of which they were required by the Bill to stick up in their premises. Only those Carriages which were both registered and licensed could be compelled to take a fare according to a scale fixed by Government, and no Carriages needed to be licensed as well as registered except those which stood for hire in streets on the public stands. It appears to us that the owners of the great majority of the Carriages let for hire in this Town would in such case keep their Carriages in their own Stables in order that they might be privileged to charge their own rates of fare, and if they did so the law would be practically perfectly useless. We have deemed it right to do away with the distinction between Carriages registered and licensed, and Carriages registered only, and to make, with certain exceptions which we shall proceed to notice, all Hackney Carriages at all reasonable times accept a fare when required so to do, and charge a uniform rate which we have laid down absolutely in the Bill.

> We have divided Hackney Carriages into three classes, and each Carriage will be registered as belonging to one or other of these classes. Carriages of the First Class will be such only as belong to Coach Builders, Hotel-keepers, and Livery Stable-keepers. For Carriages of this class we have thought it undesirable to assign any fixed rate of fare. We think that in their case the matter may well be left to arrangement between the parties. The special reasons which make it necessary to fix the fare for Carriages of an inferior description do not apply with the like force to Carriages of the First Class, which will be very much fewer in number, will be much less frequently used, and will belong to owners whom there can never be any difficulty in finding out.

Carriages of the Second and Third Classes will in fact correspond more nearly with the English Hackney Cabs: and we have accordingly dealt with them as such so far as circumstances seem to admit. When these Carriages ply as Hackney Carriages, strictly so called, they will be allowed to charge only the fares prescribed in the Bill. But the Carriages, of an inferior kind, such as will for the most part compose the Third Class, very frequently ply less as Hackney Carriages than as Stage Carriages or Omnibuses. For a Stage Carriage or Omnibus, plying generally and on no fixed line, it is of course almost an impossibility to fix any equitable rate of fares: we have therefore left the charge to be made in such cases to be fixed by agreement between the employer and employed. While these exceptions are made as to the different classes of Carriage and the fares to bepaid for the use of them, the three classes are in almost all other respects subject alike to the general provisious of the Bill.

As to the table of fares which we have prepared, we need only call attention to the fact that it provides rates for time as well as for distance. will be at the option of the hirer, when he hires the Carriage, to say whether he will pay by time of Hackney Carriages in London, most of the provisions of which, with a little modification, appear to be very suitable to the requirements of Calcutta. In the Bill as fead in Council there was a marked distinction between Carriages that were only to be "registered," and those which were required to be both "registered and licensed."

The same of Carriages which were only registered of a Hackney Carriage to take out a license. The license will be a general license to drive Hackney.

Carriages, and will not be confined to any parti- cvery Hackney Carriage under either the first, the cular Carriage. But no Hackney Carriage, to Second, or the Third Class. whatever class it may belong, may, under any circumstances (except in cases which cannot be possibly avoided), be driven by one who is not a heensed driver. Every driver will have to wear a badge, and will be subject to punishment for misconduct of any kind. All offences and disputes under or arising out of the provisions of the bill are to be heard and disposed of by the nearest Magistrate And as questions as to distance may often be raised, we have provided that in case of disputes as to the fare ellculated according to the distance, a book of distances signed by the Registering Officer shall be conclusive evidence of all distances therein stated.

We leave it open to the Government to say who shall be the Registering Officer. The Commissioner of Police is perhaps in a better position than any other Other for fulfilling all the duties of

ile post

Provision is made for the delivering up of expired registry plates and tickets as well as of plates and tickets when they are defaced or oblitenated, also for the case of their being stolen, and for the use by unlicensed persons of counterfeit plates or tickets intended to resemble true ones And we have collected together in one Section all the offences for which drivers are hable to a penalty under the Act, assigning a uniform penalty for such offences

We have somewhat cultiged the provisions regarding Palankeens, assimilating them generally to the rules as to linkney (arriages, and laying down fixed rates of faics

Such is the general nature of the alterations we have made but we think it unnecessary to enter more minutely into their details, as we annex the I'ill as am inded by us.

Infantry will be filled, as tar as practicable, from Volunteers It im among the Cornets and Ensigns on the General Lists of the three Presidencies.

Every Cornet or Ensign therefore, on these Lists, who wishes to volunteer, should state, without delay, whether he is desirous of joining one of the new Regiments of Cavalry or of Infantry as Cornet or Ensign, as the case may be, with the understanding that whether he select the Cavalty or the Inlantiv, the Regiment and his place in the Regiment will be determined by his relative seniority among the Officers now volunteering, whether they be Cavalry or Infantry Officers.

Each Officer is at liberty to volunteer conditionally on being appointed to a particular Regiment and in a particular place but he will readily understand that such conditions can only be acceded to in the event of their not involving any interference with the claims of his seniors.

Under these cucumstances, should a compliance with the conditions mentioned by the Officer so volunteering prove to be impracticable, he will be considered as not having volunteered at all.

Applications submitted under this order should be forwarded to the Adjutant-General's Office at each Presidency, on or before the 1st February next, for transmission to the Government of India.

said Act XVIII of 1534.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the carly part of the year the late Mr. Ritchie obtained leave to bring in a Bill to provide for the construction by Companies and private persons of Branch Railways, Iron Tram-roads, common Roads, or Canals, as feeders to public Railways, High-roads, navigable Rivers or Canals. It was Mr. Ritchie's intention to bring in a Bill substantially the same, in so far as the details were concerned, as the Bill introduced, with a similar object, into the late Legislative Council, though with a somewhat wider scape. The Bill introduced into the late Legislative Council was not proceeded with in consequence of the abolition of that Council.

that Council.

The Bill, framed as intended by Mr. Ritchie, having been considered by the Government in the Public Works Department, it was thought that the scope of the proposed legislation might, with great public benefit, be extended even beyond what was advised by Mr. Ritchie, and that any Bill introduced, instead of heing confined in its application to Branch Railways, Iron Tram-roads, common Roads, or Canals, as feeders to other works, might properly embrace many other works of public utility. Section II of the Bill defines the works of public utility to which it is intended that the provisions of the Bill should apply, to be Bridges, Roads, Railronds, Tram-roads, Canals for irrigation or navigation, Tanks, Works for the improvement of Rivers or Harbours, Docks, Quays, Jetties, Water-works, Gas-works, Mines, Iron or Copper-works, Brainago-works, or Electric Telegraphs, and also all works subsidiary to such works. The same Section of the Bill further gives power to the Governor-General in Council from time to time by the Governor-General in Council from time to time by a declaration to be made to that effect, and published in the Official Gazette, to order that any class of a declaration to be made to that effect, and published in the Official Gazette, to order that any class of works other than those named shall be included among works of public utility within the Act.

It was also considered that the details of the Bill, as proposed by Mr. Ritchie, might be greatly improved, and that they should be made to assimilate more nearly to the laws of the same nature which are in force at home. These considerations have led to an entire remodelling of the Bill.

In framing the Bill it had to be considered whether the Bill should be of general application, that is, whether its provisions should apply to all India, or whether the application of the Bill should be confined to those parts of India for which the Council of the Governor-General alone can legislate. As a general rule, there can be no doubt that the Governments which have Legislative Councils of their own, on any matters in respect of which those Governments are competent to legislate for themselves. The part of the Indian Councils Act of last year, which relates to legislation, was evidently framed on this principle. But when a law is required for the Empire at large, and whether the law is to be the work of a single Legislature or of several distinct Legislatures, the general principles conserved in framing it, and the more essential details, must be the same, I venture to think that there must be a great public convenience in having a single law for all India passed by the Government Jegislatures acting independently of one another.

The fact that there are, at the present time, two Branch Balls a real Alone Real in time, two another.

The fact that there are, at the present time, two

one before the Council of the Governor of Bombay and the other before the Council of the Lieutenant-Governor of Lengal, the provisions of which differ little, if at all, from the Bill proposed by Mr. Ritchie, and that Mr. Ritchie considered that a Bill such as was proposed by him, was all that was required for the entire country, would seem clearly to show that the legislation needed at this time is of the general character above described, and that consequently there can be no necessity for separate Acts for the different Presidencies, or for different parts of the same Presidency.

same Presidency.

In addition to what I have already mentioned in favor of a general Pill, I may repeat what was stated by Mr. Ritchie in the remarks with which he prefaced his motion for leave to introduce the Bill proposed by him, namely, that as a Railroad for which feeders are to be provided (and the same observation applies to Canals, High-roads, and other public works) may pass through several Districts or different Presidencies, two different Acts might be objectionable.

STATEMENT OF ORDERS AND REASONS.

This till is introduced in consequence of a representation from the Governor of the Smalls Settlement, who has brught to notice the great in inventence expedienced in that Sattlement, owing to these being na law authorizing collections; in the Police Force for a stated period of service, and from the outside of the Strain Sattlement from so much of the Police the Straits Salebanent from so mech of the Police Art of 1800 for regulating the Police in the Presidency Trees of Calcutta, Mailtas, and Seminy, and the Straits Scillerent, as relaise to the control over Ms Houses, Coffee Houses, Pourding Henries, Lodgic of Houses, Coffee Houses, Pourding Henries, Lodgic of Houses, and the like. The parts of Act XIVIII of 1800 referred to are Sentians XI, XII, and XIII. These Sentians, a they were resignally drawn, were intended to apply to the Seraits Settlement. Why the Straits Settlement was interverde excluded from the officerion, I have not been able to discover. There exerts no provide Settlement was afterwards excluded in the Greatent, for which the Ullimbies prevales, to the Stations under his gutterment.

the Stations under his paternment.
With record to the other point notice in the repre-With record to the outer point to the distributes it may be observed that measured in Examine Peachers, as the tasked in may be observed that measured has as the tasked for, saids in the Presidency Towns, or, I believe, as home. But the Governor of the Stream Settlement produced that the circumstances of that Settlement and of the Presidency Towns are very distorable. In the Presidency Towns the rate of part official is found employed to indeed the rate of part official in the Force to indeed the major newshor of the Force to indeed the change newshor of the Force to the first his distribute, his place is easily supplied. In the terrains Field mout, on the contrary, the greatest difficulty is experienced in reciprolative the Poince Force at its prescribed strength, and the Comprisionary complaint very much of the constant charges that are taking place, and which receive surpling their exertions to keep the Police Force in an efficient state. The Governor notices that in the Chlory of Hong-Kong it has been found necessary, in framing a law to regulate the Police, to require that every Inspector, subordinate Officer, and Peon, shall enlist for five years, previously to the expiration of which period no one entering the Force is at liberty to resign his office, or to withdraw himself from the duties thereof, except with the permission of the Governor, granted on a certificate of ill-health from the Colonial Surgeon, or on a special representation from the Captain Superintendent. It is considered that great advantage would result from the extension of similar provisions to the Straits Settlement, and the first two Sections of the Bill have been framed with a view to a modification of the existing law, in so far as it extends to the Straits Settlement, in the direction recommended by the Governor.

The 12th November, 1862.

From the Governor of the Straits Settlement, to the Secretary to the flowermone of India, Home Department, No. 115, dated Singapore, the 21st August 1862.

Sin.—I have the honor to enclose, for submission to His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, copy of a representation, No. 58, third the 30th ultimo, from the Councilssioner of Police at Singapore, on the subject of his want of control over Ale Houses. Coffee Houses, Bearding and Lodging Houses, &c., as exceeded by the Councilssioners of Police at the Presidency Towns in India.

2. There can be no doubt that this control is ingently needed in the Straits, more especially at Singapore. The necessity for its being granted was brought prominently to the notice of the Lecislative Council in paragraph 3 of my letter, No. 204 of the 13th Ochober 1850, and I vertainly have been at a loss to discover the grounds upon which a power if has been considered advisable to vest in the Commissioner of Police at Calcutta, Hadras, and Bombay, has been withhold from the same authority at Singapore, a large sea port, generally created with shipping of all mations, and consequently containing a large seafaring population, for whose benefit it is no essential that proper supervision should be excretised over all houses and places of public resort and entertainment.

3. Another question alladed to in my communication above mentioned was, the expediency of modifying the rules under which men are entertained for acrice in the Police, and anthorizing their being onlisted for a term of years. This may not be deemed a matter of any great importance in the Presidency Towns, where the my offend is a sufficient inducement for a Native to remain in the Force, and should be take his discharge, his place can be instoclisted yapphed, but it is far different in the Straits Settlement, where there is considerable difficulty in maintaining the Force at its prescribed at reacth, and Concussioners complain sailly of the constant changes that the police, to require

From the Commissioner of Police, Singapore, to the Secretary to Covernment, Straits Sattlement, Singapore, No. 68, databiling space, the 35th July 1842.

Sin, Is have the honor to bring to your notice a missance which has existed for years, but which has been represented even so long ago as Governor Butterworth's time; it is Beer Shops, and the great increase of them, ever which the Police Authorities have no control, as any person who wishes to open such a shop can do so without a license or permission of any kind. These places are mostly kept by Sailors who have left their ships and served as barmen in some public house, and men who are reported to me as convicts, ticket of leave men from the Australian Colonies.

Colonies.

From the Preamble of Act XLVIII of 1860 it appears evident, that the Logislative Council of India intended that the Police Commissioners of the Straits should be vested with the like power as those of Calcutta, Madras, and Rombay, but unfortunately the important words "and the secent Stations of the Sattlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca" have been omitted in the 11th and 12th Sections of the Act. This being remedied, the evil complained of could be dealt with, and only properly conducted houses would be licensed. May I request you to be good enough to bring this to the consideration of His Honor the Governor, and I feet sure you will support my suggestion.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill for regulating Public Conveyances in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta, with the Bill as revised by the Select Committee, is, by order of the President, published for general information :-

We the majority of the Select Committee on the hill for regulating Public Conveyances in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta, have the honor to submit our Report, annexing a copy of the Bill as revised by us. The Bill as it now stands, is very different from the Bill as read in Canacil, for very different from the Bill as read in Council, for we have found it necessary to make many alterations and additions, and have in many respects assimilated the Bill to the Act for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages in Loudon, most of the provisions of which, with a little modification, appear to be very suitable to the requirements of Calcutta. In the Bill as read in Council there was a marked distinction between Carriages that were only to be "registered," and those which were required to be both "registered and beensed." The owners of Carriages which were only registered were to be permitted to fix their own rates of fare, of the Carriages let for hire in this Town would in such case keep their Carriages in their own Stables in order that they might be privileged to charge their own rates of fare, and if they did so the law would be practically perfectly useless. We have deemed it right to do away with the distinction between Curriages registered and licensed, and Carriages registered only, and to make, with certain exceptions which we shall proceed to notice, all Hackney Carriages at all reasonable times accept a fare when required so to do, and charge a uniform rate which we have laid down absolutely in the Bill.

We have divided Hackney Carriages into three classes, and each Carriage will be registered as belonging to one or other of these classes. Carriages of the First Class will be such only as belong to Conch Builders, Hotel-keepers, and Livery Stable-keepers. For Carringes of this class we have thought it undesirable to assign any fixed rate of fare. We think that in their case the matter may well be left to arrangement between the parties. The special reasons which make it necessary to fix the fare for Carriages of an inferior description do not apply with the like force to Carriages of the First Class, which will be very much fewer in number, will be much less frequently used, and will belong to owners whom there can never be any difficulty in finding out.

Carriages of the Second and Third Classes will in fact correspond more nearly with the English Hackney Cabs: and we have accordingly dealt with them as such so far as circumstances seem to admit. When these Carriages ply as Hackney Carriages, strictly so called, they will be allowed to charge only the fares prescribed in the Bill. But the Carriages, of an inferior kind, such as will for the most part compose the Third Class, very frequently ply less as Hackney Carriages than as Stage Carriages or Osmilases. For a than as Stage Carriages or Omnibuses. For a Stage Carriage or Omnibus, plying generally and on no fixed line, it is of course almost an impossibility to fix any equitable rate of fares; we have therefore left the charge to be made in such cases to be fixed by agreement between the employer and employed. While these exceptions are made as to the different classes of Carriage and the fares to be paid for the use of them, the three classes are in almost all other respects subject alike to the general provisions of the Bill.

As to the table of fares which we have prepared, we need only call attention to the fact that it provides rates for time as well as for distance. It will be at the option of the hiser, when he hires the Carriage, to say whether he will pay by time the Carriage, to say whether he win pay by three or by distance; but if nothing be said about it when the hiring takes place, the fare will be payable according to time. We think that the rares which we have prescribed are quite high enough to guard the Carriage proprietor from leas by the introduction of fixed rates.

We have made it compulsory on every driver of a Hackney Carriage to take out a liceus. The license will be a general license to drive Hackney a table of which they were required by the Bill to stick up in their premises. Only those Carriages which were both registered and licensed could be compelled to take a fare according to a scale fixed by Government, and no Carriages needed to be licensed as well as registered except, those which should for hire in streets on the public stands. It appears to us that the owners of the great majority of the Carriages let for hire in this Town would in such case keep their Carriages in their own Stables in order that they much be privileged to charge. And as questions as to distance may often be And as questions as to distance may often be raised, we have provided that in case of disputes as to the fare calculated according to the distance, a book of distances signed by the Registering Officer shall be conclusive evidence of all distances therein state. therein stated.

> We leave it open to the Government to say who shall be the Registering Officer. The Commissioner of Police is perhaps in a better position than any other Officer for tulfilling all the duties of the post.

> Provision is made for the delivering up of capited registry plates and tickets as well as of plates and tickets when they are defaced or obliterated: also for the case of their being stolen, and for the use by unlicensed persons of counterfeit plates or tickets intended to resemble true ones. And we have collected together in one Section all the offences for which drivers are liable to a penalty under the Act, assigning a uniform penalty for such offences.

We have somewhat enlarged the provisions regarding Palankeens, assimilating them generally to the rules as to Hackney Carriages, and laying down fixed rates of fares.

Such is the general nature of the alterations we have made: but we think it unnecessary to enter more minutely into their details, as we anuex the Pill as amended by us.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT. - No. 2009 A .- A'lahabad, the 27th November 1862 .- The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, containing a Resolution by the Governor General in Council regarding the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, is published for general information :-

No. 874G .- Rend again the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, dated 4th January 1831.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that, under the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules of 1831, the Head of an Office, when applying for a pension for any of his Subordinates, was required to detail the name, age, &c., of the individual, and the various situations he had held, and the total period of his service, and that in a note to Clause 4 of Rule VIII. it was added -" If the Officer making the application shall be unable, from his personal or " official knowledge, to supply the whole of the " specific information above required, he shall call " upon the individual in whose favor the applica-" tion may be made to furnish a written statement " (to be verified by his oath or solemn declaration, "if required) on such of the points above noticed

"if required) on such of the points above noticed as may be necessary."

On receipt of such applications for pension in the Pinancial Department, it has been the practice, in accordance with the orders contained in the Hon'ble Court's Despatch, No. 4, dated 26th January 1848, to call on the Civil Pay-Master (formarly Civil Auditor) concerned for a report on the applicant's services.

When the Civil Pay-Master's books bear out the applicant's statement, pension is granted under the rules in proportion to the length of service. But if as often happens, the applicant chains to have rendered long service, than the Civil Pay-Master's books can prove the practice has been to ask applicant (through his official the Civil Pay-Master's hooks can prove the practice has been to ask applicant (through his official superior) to explain the discrepancy. Applicant is often able to give a plausible and sufficiently satisfactory explanation of the discrepancy, and in such cases his explanation is accepted and passion granted. Or, frequently, applicant submits certificates signed by his official superiors to prove periods of service about which there is a

Act XXV. of 1861:—

William Tylden Baldwin to the Meerut This is a subordinate Magistrate of the Second Class, as described in Section at the period to which they refer. But it sometimes happened that the applicant merely re-iterates the company of the Second Class. his former statement, or gives some unsatisfactory explanation of the discrepancy between the Civil Pay-Master's books and his statement. In such cases, it has been usual to call off the applicant to file an affidavit to the correctness of his statement, and this affidavit has been taken as proof of the correctness of his statement, under the spirit of the rule quoted above.

It is very reasonable, His Excellency in Coun-lobserves, that, when the Civil Pay-Master's Office records have been destrayed by fire (as in the Mutiny) the applicant's affidavit, failing other more reliable testimony, should be taken as proof of his statement. If the applicant's statement be correct, it should be susceptible of proof from extant and accessible records; but if such records do not affirm the statement, there is reasonable around for pressummer the statement to be unliked. ground for presuming the statement to be untrue or incorrect. Moreover, there are certain kinds of service (temporary) which do not qualify for pension, so that a man's honest statement of service may be accepted as proof that he is qualified for pension, and yet, had all the facts been known, the service would have been seen to have been temporary and no qualification for pension.

Ilis Excellency in Council therefore considers that the general application of the rule for calling for affidavits is open to abuse, and that the practice relative thereto needs to be revised. His Excellency in Council resolves accordingly that the practice in all such cases shall be as

An applicant shall be required to state clearly the situations he has filled and the periods during which he filled them.

The Civil Pay-Master shall be required to report whether his Office records bear out applicant's statements. If there be any discrepancy in the statement, the Civil Pay-Master shall detail the apparent causes of that discrepancy, for instance, that the post applicant states he filled during a certain period is shewn by the Civil Pay-Master's Registers to have been filled by another man.

If the Civil Pay-Master's records cannot afford the desired information, reference should be made to the records of the Head of the Odice in which applicant states he served during the period in doubt. Or, the applicant shall be required to furnish certificates, such as those given by an Officer to a Subordinate on his leaving an Office, which certificates may, in default of other evidence, he accepted as proof of the service to which they refer, provided, of course, the certificates bear internal evidence of being genuine.

But if the records of the Office in which applicant states that he served during the period in doubt do not afford the desired information, or if the applicant counct produce certificates, such as those given by an Officer to a Subordinate on his leaving the Office, every such case shall be decided on its own merits, those cases only being treated specially in which an affidacit would be required and accepted quantum valent.
